From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The Cloward–Piven strategy is a political strategy outlined in 1966 by American sociologists and political activists Richard Cloward and Frances Fox Piven. It is the strategy of forcing political change leading to societal collapse through orchestrated crises. The “Cloward–Piven Strategy” seeks to hasten the fall of capitalism by overloading the government bureaucracy with a flood of impossible demands, amassing massive unpayable national debt, and other methods such as unfettered immigration thus pushing society into crisis and economic collapse.

Thanks John for the update on the latest enemy ploy to destroy us, but the way I see it, it is just the same strategy rebranded to bring their order out of chaos whether it be by war or other means.

A Big Thank You

A big thank you to those of you who attended the AV13 Conference in Milton Keynes. It was fantastic to finally get back together and welcome old friends and newcomers to a very enjoyable and memorable event. We are already already working on the next AV events.

If you didn't make it to AV13 we now have the presentation recordings available.

Regards and best wishes.

The AV Team.
